

School
Breakfast and Lunch is
Available to All GGUSD
Students at No Charge!

Beginning in the 2021-2022 school year, GGUSD has the opportunity to participate in the federal Community Eligibility Provision (CEP), allowing the Food Service Department to serve meals at no costs to all students. Breakfast and lunch meals will be free of charge for all registered GGUSD students – regardless of family income, in accordance with this federal program.

A School Funding Data Collection form is to be completed annually to ensure your child's school gets funding it deserves.

Please complete a paper form at your school site or online at family.titank12.com.
